

PLAYHOUSE STUDIO OF DANCE

Playhouse Studio of Dance has the longest tenure of any dance studio in town and is run by the very classy Debbie Thomason. In 1988, the business moved from Washington Street to Fourth Street under the ownership of Mrs. Estatella Royer, also known as Teal. 2000 was Mrs. Royer's final year after 29 years of owning, teaching, and directing Playhouse.

Under the new ownership of Mrs. Deborah Thomason, Playhouse has been making a few changes. The building is currently being remodeled, outside and in. Every year the studio has a different theme for that year's recital and the classes at Playhouse are offered to a variety of ages, starting as young as 3 years of age and continuing on to adults. The classes are offered by skill level; beginner, intermediate, and advanced. Playhouse also has studios located in Gas City and Wabash which are also owned by Mrs. Thomason.

Playhouse has traveled around the world to many different locations over the previous years. The studio has traveled to Bermuda, Walt Disney World in Florida, Disneyland in California, Europe at EuroDisney, Hawaii and many other places. The studio also participates in competitions in different cities around the state and their victories and trophy's are proudly exhibited in their display window and have done Grant County proud.
