

SIGNATURE DANCE

Jamie Bragg, was the former owner of LaDanz' studio. After closing LaDanz, she taught at CSA for 5 years and served on their board until recently opening up her own business, Signature Dance. Jamie has a wealth of experience. Her reputation stems from her knowledge of Tap and Jazz dance, stage, choreography and performance. Her choreography has wow-ed many an audience from the F. Ritchie Walton Performance Center, Market Square Arena, Conseco Fieldhouse, Regional to National competitions, Las Vegas to New York and an International Dance Tour of Spain. She has instructed and choreographed for various dance organizations such as Dance Olympus, The Boston Dance Teachers Association, The Maine Dance Teachers Association and Ball State University. Many of her students are currently, or have been involved in, dance professionally through Dance Companies, NBA Dance Teams, Broadway, Disney, and as Dance Instructors. With great compassion for the arts, Jamie has a self driven work ethic and demands the same from her students.
